

LPPM ITB proudly presents,

A Workshop of Academic Writing with theme :

"WRITING A GREAT PAPER AND GETTING IT PUBLISHED IN A RESEARCH JOURNAL"

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6th 2015

9 am – 3.30 pm

Auditorium IPTEKS Campus Center Timur ITB

Dr. Eleonora Presani
Elsevier, Netherlands

She joined Elsevier in 2012, she was a particle physicist at CERN, on a research team that worked on a device to detect anti-matter in space that was placed aboard the International Space Station. Faced with the uncertainty of research-funding in a highly competitive field, the native of Trieste, Italy, decided to pursue a related interest: science communications. As a publisher, she is responsible for 14 academic journals in Nuclear and High Energy Physics, including Physics Letters B, Nuclear Physics A, Nuclear Physics B, Nuclear Instruments and Methods and Physics of the Dark Universe. Her role is to organize and improve the editorial processes, appoint editors and attend international conferences.

Wong Woei Fuh, Ph.D

FUNDAMENTALS OF THOUGHT

Publishing academic research articles in refereed journals is expected by a majority of universities. Directorate General of Higher Education, Ministry of Education and Culture of the Republic of Indonesia has been encouraged all students should publish their academic writing before they get bachelor, master or doctorate title. Therefore, the Institute of Research and Community Services of Bandung Institute of Technology supported by Elsevier Indonesia, organizes and invites all students, researchers, and lecturers to a workshop of academic writing with theme "Writing a Great Paper and Getting it Published in a Research Journal." The workshop will be held in English.
